An Irish Parliament Member Declared an Outlaw.

The Alleged Treasonable Performances of Mr. O'Kelly In the Soudan-The Sympathy of Irisamen With El Mahdi.

LONDON, March 25.-James J. O'Kelly, formerly a well-known American newspaper correspondent, and at present Home Rule member of Parliament for Roscom-mon, Ireland, has been declared an outlaw by several bodies of politicians, both Tory and Liberal. A movement is being organ-ized to have him expelled from Parliament because of his alleged treasonable actions against the Government in the Soudan.

() Kelly disappeared early in December, and nothing was heard of him until March. At the latter date a letter appeared in the London newspapers over his signature, dated Assioot, and containing a bitter attack when the Government policy in the tack upon the Government policy in the Soudan, and the most gloomy foreboding concerning its outcome. On March 19 O'Kelly was reported to be with El Mahdi as counsellor, in high favor with the false

It was claimed by his friends that his sole business at El Mahdi's headquarters was that of war correspondent for the London Daily News, having engaged to take the place of E. O'Donovan, who was killed while acting in the same capacity under Hicks Pasha at El O'Beid. For some time, however, rumors have been in circulation that O'Kelly's office of correspondent has been assumed for the purpose of hiding his real mission, which is alleged to be nothing less than British adviser to El Mahdi, acting as such for the Irish revolutionists. claimed that it can be proved that O'Kelly has been of great assistance to the Prophet in procuring him means, etc., and it is said that the recent movement among the Roscommon Home Rulers ostensibly to raise a subscription as a testimonial to O Kelly, was in reality a financial enterprise in the interest of El Mahdi's treasury.

The majority of the Irish Home Rulers are known to sympathize with the El Mahdi and it would surprise no one if the anti-Parnellites should revert to any means to secure a decree against O'Kelly as a means of fastening his alleged avert acts upon the Irish nationalists. Aside from the operations in the field the troublesome Egyptian question is coming to the surface in two or three other ways.
